Beautiful Battle is taking you on a guided walk through the lovely town of Battle to show you some of the key heritage landmarks and secret gardens that you might not have known were there...many of them cared for by the Beautiful Battle Volunteers.

Starting from the Almonry Garden at the Town Hall, we take you through the Market Square to Market Road. Turn left at the Roundabout, to the Recreation Ground (who's for tennis?) and on to Asten Fields. Retrace to the Old Police Station and Courthouse. You will see The Fire and Ambulance Stations on the site of the Old Towers Hotel, followed by Wellington Court flats where once was The Wellington Public House. A narrow twitten brings you into Mount Street. Turn left to a new garden at Mountjoy. At this point you may like to take a walk up to Kingsmead and The Windmill, and on over Caldbec Hill to spot a family of scarecrows along Whatlington Road..... or..... cross back and into Cherry Gardens Community Garden. Continue through the twitten to Mount Street Car Park. Here there are several options...all bringing you into Battle High Street. You may have passed through The Old Mill site in Old Ladies Court, or the ex "Newbery Preserves" Factory site at Abbey Court. Battle Abbey, the 'Origin of a Nation' is in full view. The Old Bullring and Pilgrims Rest (formerly the hospital for Battle Abbey) transport us back to mediaeval times, with the traditions of Bonfire and Marbles reflected in the scarecrows here. Glance left to Yesterdays World before St Marys Church which offers up some surprises, and from Upper Lake the view across Lake Meadow to the Caldbec Windmill has its own directional scarecrows. Continue to Lower Lake, and Senlac Gardens (1-6), and onto Battle Bowls Club close to the Old Railway Hotel...now The Senlac. Retrace your steps back through town, turning left into The Old Gildhall (now Nationwide).

You have completed the circuit...spot them all???? Suggest you take a second look!
